Dear Friends,

The sunbeams that illuminate the lake and the blue sky marked with some white clouds are testimonies of a wonderful summer that is by now unfortunately drawing to a close. In addition, whilst the Terminus is still under restoration works, the Villa Flori shines this year like never before, adorned as it is with magnificent new red Geraniums. We invite you to read this short report and we remain at your complete disposal for any queries you may have

Truly Yours,

Cristina Zucchi

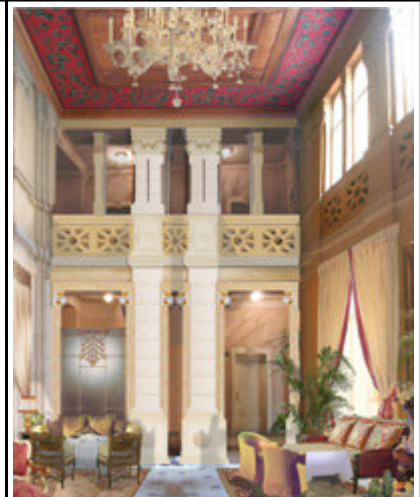

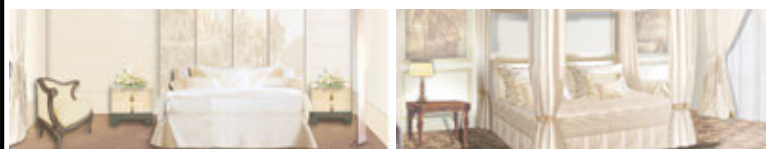

The New York Times talks about Terminus Hotel

With great pride, we are reporting a New York Times article that talks about Lake Como and in particular, of our Hotel Terminus that is quoted in the article praising the position and its distinctive characteristics, such as the comfortable rooms and the richness of its interior. Naturally, the beauty of the Lake Como and of its typical coastal villages remains the most attractive but..... how better can one begin a break on the lake than starting right from the Terminus Hotel.

Work in progress at the Terminus

An ambitious project that is about to be brought to an end. Thirteen new "De Luxe" rooms directly facing Piazza Cavour and a brand new meeting room seating 40/50 are located on the ground floor of the hotel with four large French-doors with a lake and garden view. We have new furniture and a complete restyling for our Hall, where you can spend relaxing moments. The meticulous refurbishment works are personally followed by our owner, Mr. Antonello Passera, a guarantee of work that borders perfection.

Villa Flori in Red

This year, Villa Flori presents itself to its guests with a new look, magnificent red geraniums border the façade and roses, maple trees and palms decorate the secular park that surrounds the Villa with style and taste. The RAIMONDI restaurant, partly integrated in the Hotel is ready to offer you pleasant evenings on the bank of the lake in a romantic atmosphere. The attentive kitchen proposes characteristic recipes from Lombardy satisfying the tastes of the most demanding palates.

Maurizio, a George Clooney Double!

Imagine that you resemble George Clooney and in addition you live on Lake Como; that is what happened to Maurizio Gerosa, manager of our Restaurant. The "Discovery" was made by a famous journalist of VANITY FAIR magazine; from that day Maurizio was launched on show and into the limelight. To have a famous person "in House" leaves us therefore both proud and cautiously worried. If you are curious for the gossip on Maurizio, visit the website: NOT CLOONEY, I'M MAURIZIO
